

Disclosure form:

The rider _____ claims that he/she are experienced enough with riding to take part in the advance outride. And they agree that they take this outride at their own risk. The rider agrees that their horse is well trained and Silvermist Equestrian Center and their employees will not be held liable for any accidents, injury or death due to their lack of experience or level of riding.

By signing this form, the rider accepts, that if the instructor or trail guide decides that they are not as experienced as they claim they are, or are not wearing the right clothes, the rider will not be permitted to join the ride. This is to prevent any injury to themselves, the horses, and other riders on the trail. The rider will not be refunded, or do a replacement ride, if the rider falsely claimed to be experienced.

By experienced rider we mean:

Can at least manage their horse in a walk trot and canter.

Can handle their horse if it spooks (stop their horse)/ Knows how to control their horse

Have the knowledge as to what might put their horse/rider in a dangerous situation.
